FEES

A non-refundable Enrolment/Application fee and CoE issuing fee (exclusive of Tuition fees and material fees) are required at the time of enrolment and this guarantees your place in the course. The enrolment deadline is 10 working days after the commencement of the course.

Students who fall behind in the payment of their fees or fail to pay their tuition fee on the due date, may be charged a late payment fee of $120.00 per term or may be refused training and assessment services and any requests until such times as the fees are paid and up-to-date. Please note that students will be required to maintain academic course progress in consultation with the Course Coordinator. Should fees remain overdue for more than one day after the due date YBI will inform the student of their intention to report them for non-payment of fees to DHA via PRISMS.

For more information regarding fees and payments please refer to <https://www.york.edu.au/pre-enrolment/fees-payment/>

FEE REFUND POLICY

The request for refund must be made in writing to the Principal Executive Officer by using the Refund Application Form.

- No refunds will be paid to a third party unless it is indicated at the time the Refund Application Form is lodged, that any refunds due are payable to a third party.
- Where a refund is approved, York Business Institute will make payment of refunds within 28 days of receipt of the Refund Application Form
- In the case of default by York Business Institute, the provisions of the ESOS Act 2000 and the ESOS Regulations 2001 apply. For further information about the ESOS Act please see <https://internationaleducation.gov.au/regulatory-information/pages/regulatoryinformation.aspx>

RTO DEFAULT

- Under the Tuition Protection Service (TPS) framework, if York Business Institute is unable to fulfill its obligations to complete a course. The TPS framework will facilitate the placement of students in the first instance, and where this is not possible, provides a refund of unexpended tuition fees (i.e. tuition the student has paid for but has not been delivered by the provider).
 - York Business Institute defaults if the course they offer does not start on the agreed starting day.
 - York Business Institute defaults if the course stops being provided after it starts and before it is completed or the course is not provided fully to the student because the registered provider has had a sanction imposed.
 - If York Business Institute defaults, YBI will refund to the student within 14 days after the default day and receipt of your Refund Application Form.
 - York Business Institute will give the student a statement that explains how the refund amount has been worked out. York Business Institute dispute resolution processes does not circumscribe the student's right to pursue other legal remedies.
 - This agreement and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.
 - The Standards for RTOs require the Institute to inform students considering enrolment of their right to a statutory cooling off period. A statutory cooling off period (which is 10 days) is a period of time provided to a consumer to allow them to withdraw from a consumer agreement, where that agreement was established through unsolicited marketing or sales tactics. These include tactic such as door-to-door sales and telemarketing. A statutory cooling off period allows a consumer to withdraw from a sales agreement within 10 days of having received a sale contract without penalty.
- It must be noted that our Institute does not engage in unsolicited marketing or sales tactics and therefore a statutory cooling off period is not applicable to our students who have enrolled into a course. For refund option in other circumstances, students must refer to the refund policy.
- The refund policy is subject to review from time to time.
 - The Institute recommends that you read the ESOS Framework Information, which provides legislative protection for International students, available at <https://internationaleducation.gov.au/regulatory-information/pages/regulatoryinformation.aspx>

There are no Third Party arrangements with the delivery of courses at York Business Institute. York Business Institute is solely responsible for the delivery of all courses and for the issuance of their certifications. York Business Institute is also solely responsible for its compliance.

COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS POLICY

Students have access to a Complaints and Appeals procedure if they feel they have been unjustly treated or have a serious complaint. Students who feel they have any type of complaint should first contact the Administration Manager. If necessary the complaint will be referred to the Principal Executive Officer in order to resolve the situation. A student dissatisfied with an activity or a decision regarding their academic outcomes can voice their concerns to the staff member concerned and, if appropriate, appeal to the Principal Executive Officer.

If students are still dissatisfied with the outcome of the complaint / grievance / appeal then students may lodge an external appeal or complain about the decision with the Overseas Students Ombudsman. The Overseas Students Ombudsman offers a free and independent service for overseas students who have a complaint or want to lodge an external appeal about a decision made by their private education or training provider. See the Overseas Students Ombudsman website <http://www.ombudsman.gov.au/about/overseas-students> or phone 1300 362 072 for more information.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

All people associated with York Business Institute have the same rights. Harassment, bullying and victimisation will not be tolerated at York Business Institute. Discrimination on any grounds is unacceptable. Students who feel that they are being sexually harassed or are the victims of any sort of racism should initially contact the Administration Manager. If the complaint is sufficiently serious, the Principal Executive Officer may establish a formal inquiry and/or refer to external authorities.
